

Basic Detail Report

---

Qingbai Foliate Dish

Date

12th century

Primary Maker

Unidentified artist

Medium

Porcelain dish

Description

From appraisal of this dish and another of the pair: Each of shallow flaring form, the sides with twelve lobes designating the petals of a flower, the rim notched and the exterior incised with lines radiating up from the foot, under a pale 'shadow blue' glaze, the flat, slightly countersunk base unglazed and showing the porcelain body burnt orange in the firing, one with minute rim nibbles

Dimensions

4 1/4 in. (10.8 cm)